International Turnout at Teck BC Cup #1

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JANUARY 12, 2016

VERNON B.C. – Teck BC Cup #1 was hosted by the Sovereign Lake Nordic Club last weekend. The turnout exceeded expectations with more than 360 athletes including teams from Alberta, the Northwest Territories, the United States and Australia. Over 60 volunteers were on hand to run the two-day event.

Day 1 saw Classic Technique sprints run over 14 categories and seven different competition courses. The final heats were run at last light. It was a long day which, in the end, saw some amazing performances and competitions. Overall it was a very rewarding day for all involved.

Day 2 was a Free Technique interval start race with 14 categories racing on five different courses. The race went off without a hitch with races and awards for the younger categories completed by 11:30am. This provided for early departures for families after a long and fun-filled weekend of racing.
