

2014 TOMMIE AWARDS Celebrating Building Excellence

KELOWNA VOLVO YOUR LOCAL DEALER 0% FINANCING APR FOR 60 MONTHS

Kelowna Weather Penticton Weather Vernon Weather West Kelowna Weather Kamloops Weather Vancouver Weather

Okanagan SPORTS PAGE

Canada Games Preview For X-C Skier

by Lorne White | Story: 131787 - Jan 29, 2015 / 5:40 pm

Recommend 0 Tweet 2

PREVIOUS STORIES

- Struggling Chiefs Sur... Comeback For Cailey... Smith To Redshirt Fo... Immaculata Downs O... More Cities... At Skate Nationals... Olympic Prep sees... in Final... Coquihalla Cam... Apex Cam... Big White Cam... Silver Star Cam... Crystal Mtn Cam... Mt Baldy Cam... More Cams

About the Author

Lorne White began his sports journalism career at the Kelowna Daily Courier in 1969. He retired in January 2014 and is now the photographer, editor and publisher of the Okanagan Sports Page.

He's passionate about sports - all sports, all ages - and believes they are an integral part of the Central Okanagan fabric.

Okanagan Sports Page - "Your Online Sports Community" - reflects Lorne's vision for excellence and personal-best commitment to 21st century sports coverage.

We're breaking new ground.

We have you in focus and on record at: www.okanagansportspage.com

RSS this page. (Click for RSS instructions.)

Member of BC Press Council

Photo: David Webster Photo

Canada Games-bound Gareth Williams of the Telemark Junior Racers skied to a pair of gold medals at the B.C. Cup #2 in Revelstoke.

Displaying the talent that earned him a berth on B.C.'s 2015 Canada Winter Games cross country ski team, Gareth Williams of Kelowna won back-to-back races at the second installment of the Teck BC Cup Series in Revelstoke on the weekend.

Williams, a member of the Telemark Junior Racers, opened the event on Saturday by leading a field of 24 skiers in the 10-kilometre classic race on the Macpherson Nordic Trails.

FULL STORY: Okanagan Sports Page

Read More: Okanagan Sports Report a Typo SEND US YOUR NEWS TIPS

Read more Okanagan Sports articles

