The Larch Hills Nordics once again won the overall club championship trophy following the weekend's final Teck event, hosted by the Hollyburn Cross Country Ski Club in Whistler.

Despite the rain, Larch Hills Nordics still had a great ski weekend and skiers were rewarded for a season of effort.

Many Larch Hills skiers earned aggregate awards for their cumulative race results for this year. Max Calkins was awarded first place for the Pee Wee Boys 1, and Jonathan Breugem, Ian Van Bergeyk and Ben Milne earned first, second and third place awards respectively.

Jeremia Bucher placed first for the Pee Wee Girls 1. Eric Moore earned second for the Bantam Boys 1. Emily Carelse was awarded first place and Hilary Vukadinovic third for the Bantam Girls 1. For the Bantam Girls 2, Samantha Vukadinovic was awarded first place and Zara Bucher second.

For the Midget Boys 1, Trond May earned first place, and Stephen Moore earned third for the Midget Boys 2. For the Midget Girls 1, Julianne Moore earned first, Claire Van Bergeyk second and Lys Milne third. For the Midget Girls 2, Maggie Beckner earned second.

For the Juvenile Boys 2, Konrad Van Varseveld was awarded third, while Julia Brown earned second and Rachel Bates third for the Juvenile Girls 1.

For the Junior Boys 1, David Bakker earned third and in Junior Boys 2, Andrew Nash was awarded first place and Seth Van Varseveld second. Rachel May was awarded first place for the Junior Girls 1. For the Junior Men, Alexander Corbett earned second place, and for the Open Men, Thomas Hardy earned first. For the Master Women 40-49, Sheila Corbett earned first place. For the Master Men 50-59, Alan Corbett earned third place.
