2022 Teck Okanagan Cup Series Winds Up

March 13, 2022

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Penticton, BC)

This past Sunday, March 13th, the Nickel Plate Nordic Club of Penticton hosted Teck Okanagan Cup #2 race, the final race in the 2022 Teck Okanagan Cup Series. The race, which was a great success, was held on a beautiful, sunny late winter afternoon.

The race saw 134 participants from 12 cross country ski clubs from across British Columbia and beyond. Racers competed in categories from under 8 to 60 years and over. Athletes attended from the following clubs: Nickel Plate Nordic Club (Penticton/Host); Telemark Nordic Club (West Kelowna); Larch Hills Nordic Society (Salmon Arm); Revelstoke Nordic Ski Club; Methow Valley Nordic Team (Winthrop, Washington, USA); Spud Valley Nordic Club (Pemberton); Sovereign Lake Nordic Club (Vernon); Fernie Nordic Society; Edmonton Nordic Club; Overlander Ski Club (Kamloops); Yellowknife Nordic Club (Yellowknife, Northwest Territories) and Downtown Nordic (Winnipeg, Manitoba).

Congratulations to competitors and coaches for giving their all at the final event of the season – we look forward to hosting another event in 2023!

We want to thank our main sponsor, Teck Resources Limited for the generous season-long sponsorship and support for cross country ski competitions this season.

We also want to thank our partner sponsors, whose support made for such a successful event; CanCADD Imaging solutions Ltd., Kelowna; Bartier Brothers Winery, Oliver, and Swagman Penticton. Nickel Plate Nordic also wishes to recognize club sponsors for their contributions to the that are vital to club operations through the season; Flo Physio, Omland Heal and Valley First.

The event went forward in no small part to large group of tireless and dedicated volunteers that worked in race-day operations, planning, hosting, and logistics. A very special thank-you goes to the more than 50 volunteers that gave more than 750 person hours of time to make such a great day for racers and coaches.
